A Borrowed Identity opens in theaters

Eyad, who grew up in an Arab town in Israel, is given the chance to go to a prestigious Jewish boarding school in Jerusalem. He desperately tries to fit in with his schoolmates and is isolated, until Jewish classmate Naomi befriends him. Through love, friendship, tradition, and conflict, Eyad struggles to find his identity. (Israel, 2014, 105 min)

After opening the Israel Film Center Festival, A Borrowed Identity is now playing @ Lincoln Plaza Cinema.
